

Global AIDS
Interfaith Alliance®

Film Screening & Panel Discussion

Join us for a special screening of the short film The Far End of the Road showcasing GAIA's life-saving work at the frontlines of the fight against HIV/AIDS in rural Malawi, where 1 in 6 lives with HIV and health care is often many hours away. The short film produced by an award-winning team at MediaStorm, tells the story of two women working towards creating an AIDS-free future for Malawi.

FREE FILM

Tuesday, April 7 2015
7:00 pm—9:00 pm

Laemmle Playhouse 7
673 East Colorado Blvd
Pasadena, CA

Q & A to follow the film, featuring Dr. Michael Gottlieb, physician and immunologist known for his 1981 identification of AIDS as a new disease, Todd Schafer, GAIA CEO, and Eva Mtika, GAIA trustee and Malawian expatriate, and Melanie Perera, GAIA Nursing Program Coordinator.

Wine reception at 7:00 pm.

Screening promptly at 7:30 pm.

Voluntary donations will benefit Global AIDS Interfaith Alliance (GAIA) a secular 501(c)3 non-profit, non-governmental organization based in California and founded in 2000 in response to the global HIV/AIDS epidemic. Tax ID# 94-3364364.

Visit www.gaiafilm.eventbrite.com to reserve your tickets for this event. Space is limited.